WORKSHOP
HUMAN SPACE AND IDEOLOGY

12-13 DECEMBER 2017

POLISH ACADEMY OF SCIENCES
SCIENTIFIC CENTER IN VIENNA
BOERHAAVEGASSE 25, 1030 WIEN
12 December 2017

13:00
Jagoda Wierzejska, Danuta Sosnowska: Opening remarks

13:15
Panel I: The (symbolic) appropriation of space

Opening lecture
Kerstin Jobst
(Institute of Eastern European History, University of Vienna)
The Sacralization of Space: The Crimea in the Russian Discourse

14:00
Jagoda Wierzejska
(Institute of Polish Literature, University of Warsaw)
A Domestic Space: The Central and Eastern Carpathians in the Tourist and Local lore
Polish Discourse, 1918-1939

Elżbieta Janicka
(Institute of Slavic Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences)
A Triumphant Gate of the Polish Narrative: Warsaw Public Space at a Time of the Holocaust Narrative Crisis

Urszula Kowalska
(Instytut Filologii Słowiańskiej, Uniwersytet im. Adama Mickiewicza w Poznaniu)
Is Experiencing History Possible? Between „Dark Tourism” and the „Holocaust Industry”: Czech Case

15:00
Discussion

16:00
Dinner break
18:30

Open lecture

Alina Molisak
(Institute of Polish Literature, University of Warsaw)

Rekonstruktion, Ruine, Leere... Jüdische Anwesenheit/Abwesenheit im städtischen Raum am Beispiel von drei Synagogen in Berlin, Lemberg und Warschau

Moderator: Magdalena Baran-Szoltys
(Institute of Slavic Studies, University of Vienna)

---

13 December 2017

10:00

Panel II: The (symbolic) rivalry for space

Danuta Sosnowska
(Institute of Western and Southern Slavic Studies, University of Warsaw)

Czech Republic and Conflicted Traditions: Svaty Jan pod Skalou – The Place Close to Prague “Where Everything is a Little Bit Different”

Ludwika Włodek
(Centre for East European Studies, University of Warsaw)

Common Past and Different Histories of the Borderland Region of Spis

Maciej Falski
(Institute of Western and Southern Slavic Studies, University of Warsaw):

Who Has the Right to the Space? Some Examples of Touristification in Croatia

Marketa Slavkova
(Institute of Social Anthropology, University in Bratislava)

Eating Practices, Displacement and Emplacement amongst Former and Current Inhabitants of Srebrenica in BiH

11:20

Discussion
12:30
Lunch break

14:00
Panel III: The (symbolic) retrieving / obtaining of space

Magdalena Baran-Szoltyss
(Institute of Slavic Studies, University of Vienna)
Gonzo, Ironic Nostalgia, Magical Realism, or How to Re-Narrate Traumatic Transnational Borderland Stories

Olena Dvoretska
(Institute of Slavic Studies, University of Vienna)
Historical Faces of the White Elephant: Former Polish Observatory in Texts of Yurii Andrukhovych

Agnieszka Hudzik
(Institute of Slavic Studies, University of Potsdam)
Creating Narrative and Space in a City: A Case Study of Lublin

Valentina Gulin Zrnić
(Institute of Ethnology and Folklore Research, University of Zagreb)
Contemporary Resemantization of Public Spaces in Zagreb

15:20
Discussion

17:00
Closing of the workshop